This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (Commission) on the request of StarVox Communications, Inc. (StarVox or the Company), filed March 24, 2008, to withdraw without prejudice the Company's Application in the present proceeding. On October 4, 2007, StarVox filed its application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for authority to provide local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services in South Carolina.

StarVox, by letter from the Company's counsel, seeks to withdraw, without prejudice, its Application. According to StarVox's counsel, the other parties to this proceeding, the South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff and the South Carolina Telephone Coalition, do not object to the request for withdrawal.

Upon consideration of StarVox's request, the Commission finds that the request of StarVox to withdraw its Application should be granted.
